

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	7
I IMPORT – EXPORT: INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES TO LAW ed. M. Anderbeiden and S. Kirste
Bart van Klink / Sanne Taekema
Limits and Possibilities of Interdisciplinary Research into Law – A Comparison of Pragmatist and Positivist Views	17
Michael Anderbeiden
The Paradox of Interdisciplinary Research	33
Stephan Kirste
The Genuine Contribution of Jurisprudence to an Interdisciplinary Discourse	47
Oliver W. Lembcke
Balancing Law and Politics – The Contribution of Political Theory	59
Vasiliki Christou
Law, Performatives, and Normativity – Testing the Limits and Potential of Interdisciplinary Research	77
Juliana Neuenschwander-Magalhães
Law and Cinema – Knowing Law through Art	91
Miodrag A. Jovanović
Collective Rights – A Case Study of Interdisciplinary Approach in Jurisprudence	99
Klaus Mathis
Efficiency as a Normative Principle	113
Péter Cserne
Import, Export, and Multilateral Translation – Methodological Lessons from an Economic Analysis of Paternalism in Contract Law	129

II CONSTITUTIONALISM

ed. A. v. Aaken and *P. PolICASTROAnne van Aaken*A Functional Approach to International Constitutionalism –
The Value Added of a Social Science Contribution 155*Pasquale PolICASTRO*Constitutionalism vs. Economic Analysis:
On the Use of Founding Theories and Complementary Theories in Constitutional Interpretation 173*Jelena von Achenbach*Vorschläge zu einer Demokratietheorie der dualen demokratischen
Legitimation europäischer Hoheitsgewalt 205*Raffaele Lapenta*

The Right of Defense in the Framework of Multilevel Constitutionalism 219

Teresa Freixes / Mercè Sales

Multilevel Constitutionalism Equality and Non-Discrimination 235

Markku Kiikeri

Legal-Cultural Approach to European Law 249

Authors 265