

Table of Contents

Philipp Robinson Rössner
Ian Blanchard. An Appreciation (incl. full list of publications).....	ix
 Michael Palairat (Edinburgh)
The Descent into a Dark Age: Byzantine Europe, c.400–800 A.D.....	5
 Richard Britnell (Durham)
Royal Initiative and Scottish Burghs, 1100–1400.....	29
 Katalin Szende (Central European University, Budapest)
Neighbourhoods, Suburbs and Ethnic Quarters in the Hungarian Towns, Thirteenth to Fifteenth Centuries.....	47
 Balázs Nagy (Central European University, Budapest)
The Study of Medieval Foreign Trade of Hungary: A Historiographical Overview.....	69
 Phillipp Schofield (Aberystwyth)
Credit and its Record in the Later Medieval English Countryside.....	81
 Philipp Robinson Rössner (Leipzig)
Bad Money, Evil Coins? Coin Debasement and Devaluation as Instruments of Monetary Policy on the Eve of the ‘Price Revolution’.....	93
 John Munro (Toronto)
Necessities and Luxuries in Early-Modern Textile Consumption: Real Values of Worsted Saws and Fine Woollens in the Sixteenth-Century Low Countries.....	125
 Thomas Max Safley (Pennsylvania)
The Höchstetter Bankruptcy of 1529 and its Relationship to the European Quicksilver Market.....	153
 Nuala Zahedieh (Edinburgh)
Technique or Demand? The Revival of the English Copper Industry, ca. 1680–1730.....	171

Christopher A. Whatley (Dundee) Serendipity and a Statue: Dundee, Robert Burns and ‘a monument worthy of Scotland’	179
Markus A. Denzel (Leipzig / Bolzano) Japan’s Integration into the International Cashless Payment System. A Case Study.....	191
List of Contributors	207