

Contents

Martin Dinges

Introduction 7

Silvia Waisse

East Meets West: Johann M. Honigberger and Medical Pluralism through the Eyes of a 19th Century Transylvanian Saxon in India 31

Shinjini Das

Innovating Indigeneity, Reforming Domesticity:
Nationalising Homeopathy in Colonial Bengal 53

Avi Sharma

Rethinking Asymmetries in the Marketplace:
Medical Pluralism in Germany, 1869–1910 71

Ameeta R. Manchanda

A Homeopathic Clinic in a Multispeciality Hospital.
Reflections from Practice 85

Raj Kumar Manchanda / Surender Kumar Verma / Leena V. Chhatre / Harleen Kaur

Homeopathy in Urban Primary Healthcare Units of the Delhi Government: An Assessment..... 91

Harish Naraindas

Nosopolitics.
Epistemic Mangling and the Creolization of Contemporary Ayurveda .. 105

Hugues Dusausoit

The Quest for Another Recognition.
Ethnography of an homeopath in Tamil Nadu..... 137

Marion Baschin

The Patients' Choice – How and Why Sick People
Used Homeopathy in 19th Century Münster 149

Rahul Tewari / Ramachandran Valavan

Patients' Trend in Choosing the Homeopathic Medical System in India .. 167

Philipp Eisele

Medical Pluralism and the Patients' Perspective in Germany –
Letters to “Natur und Medizin” (1992–2000)..... 183

Nupur Barua

Medical Pluralism in a Slum in Delhi:
Global Medicine in a Local Garb?..... 203

Krishna Soman

Pluralism, Popularity and Propaganda:
Narratives of Lay Practices of Homeopathy in India 217

William Sax

Looking Behind and Ahead..... 245

Authors..... 249