

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	9
Foreword.....	13
INTRODUCTIVE SECTION
Maurizio Giangiulio
Do Societies Remember? The Notion of ‘Collective Memory’: Paradigms and Problems (from Maurice Halbwachs on).....	17
Elena Franchi
Memories of Winners and Losers. Historical Remarks on why Societies Remember and Commemorate Wars.....	35
Giorgia Proietti
Can an Ancient Truth Become an Old Lie? A Few Methodological Remarks Concerning Current Comparative Research on War and its Aftermath.	71
SECTION I
WAR MEMORIALS: OBJECTS IN PERFORMANCE
Lilah Grace Canevaro
Commemoration through Objects? Homer on the Limitations of Material Memory.....	95
Birgit Bergmann
Beyond Victory and Defeat. Commemorating Battles prior to the Persian Wars.....	111
Holger Baitinger
Commemoration of War in Archaic and Classical Greece. Battlefields, Tombs and Sanctuaries.....	131
James Roy
Memorials of War in Pausanias.....	147

Nina Fehrlen-Weiss The Thirty Years' War in German Commemorative Culture from the Beginning of the Holy Roman Empire to the Present – An Overview	157
Simone A. Bellezza Nation Building through Commemoration: Stalinism, WWII, and Holocaust Memorials in Post-Soviet Ukraine	171
SECTION II WAR DEAD: FROM CITIZENS TO SYMBOLS
Mirko Canevaro Courage in War and the Courage of the War Dead – Ancient and Modern Reflections	187
Blanka Misic Cognitive Aspects of Funerary Commemoration of Soldiers and Veterans in Roman Poetovio	207
Johannes Birgfeld Commemorating War and War Dead in 18 th Century Germany	219
Marco Mondini (with the collaboration of Cecilia Cozzi) Brothers and Heroes. Literary Sources on Death in the First World War (the Italian Case)	239
SECTION III NARRATIVES OF WAR: HISTORIOGRAPHY, PUBLIC DISCOURSE, AND CULTURAL MEMORY
Roel Konijnendijk Commemoration through Fear: The Spartan Reputation as a Weapon of War	257
Elena Franchi The Memory of the Sacred Wars and Some Origin Stories	271
Mark Thorne Caesar and the Challenge of Commemorating the Battle of Pharsalia	287
Giuseppe Albertoni Heroes in aula Dei : Commemorating Wars and the Fallen in the Time of Charlemagne	301

Alessandro Salvador

Nationalism, the Politics of Memory and Revisionism: German World War I Veterans and their Transnational Relations	319
---	-----

CONCLUSIVE SECTION

Mirko Canevaro

Conclusive Remarks.....	337
-------------------------	-----

Abstracts and Keywords.....	345
-----------------------------	-----

Contributors	355
--------------------	-----

Index.....	359
------------	-----