

CONTENTS

Preface of the Editors.....	7
List of Illustrations.....	9

1. Benjamin E. Scolnic and Altay Coşkun

An Introduction to the Seleukids at War: Recruitment, Composition, Organization	11
--	----

SECTION I: RECRUITMENT

2. John Serrati

Soldiers, Settlers, and Citizens: Katoikoi in the Seleukid Empire.....	31
---	----

3. Nicholas V. Sekunda

Macedonian Military Service in the Seleukid Kingdom	49
---	----

4. Paul A. Johstono

Generating Infantry for Seleukid Field Armies	103
---	-----

SECTION II: COMPOSITION

5. Altay Coşkun

Macedonians, Silvershields, and the Phalanx under Antiochos III Megas and Antiochos IV Epiphanes	129
---	-----

6. Pim Möhring and Rolf Strootman

Mysian Light Infantry in the Seleukid Army.....	157
---	-----

7. Hadrien Bru

The Pisidians between Seleukids and Ptolemies	179
---	-----

8. Benjamin E. Scolnic

From Mosallomos' Arrow to Makkabaios' Sword: Jewish Soldiers in the Seleukid Era.....	199
--	-----

SECTION III: ORGANIZATION

9. Graham Wrightson Command Hierarchy in the Seleukid Phalanx	223
10. Silvannen R. Gerrard Seleukid Infantry/Cavalry Ratios: The Numerical Importance of Cavalry	241
11. Michael J. Taylor 'A Commander Will Put an End to His Insolence' – The Battle of Magnesia, 190 BCE	269

SECTION IV: WARFARE AND DIPLOMACY

12. Yuri N. Kuzmin A Shield with the Depiction of a Seleukid Anchor at Patara.....	297
13. Pierre-Luc Brisson Of Ships and Elephants: The Aftermath of Gnaeus Octavius' Embassy and Rome's Eastern Policy in the 160s BCE	307
14. Altay Coşkun Epilogue: The Strength of the Seleukid Army and Open Questions	325
Index of Names	335
Index of Subjects	340
Index of Sources	344
About the Authors.....	355