

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Roland Löffler
Framing the social dimension of the German Protestant mission to Palestine. Methodological and theoretical remarks.....	11
Heleen Murre-van den Berg
The study of western missions in the Middle East (1820–1920): an annotated bibliography.....	35
Dominique Trimbur
The Catholic Church in the concepts of French and German foreign cultural policies in the Middle East. From the end of the 19 th century up to 1945.....	55
Charlotte van der Leest
Educational principles and activities in the schools run by Bishop Gobat and the CMS in Palestine (1846–1879)	67
Haim Goren
School- and mission-conceptions of the German Catholics in Palestine until the First World War.....	87
Ruth Kark/Shlomit Langboim
Missions and identity formation among the peoples of Palestine: the case of the Jewish population.....	101
Barbara Haider-Wilson
The Catholic Jerusalem milieu of the Habsburg Monarchy and its contribution to the mission in the Holy Land.....	121

Yaron Perry
Medical treatment as a missionary instrument and its social consequences. Aspects of the work by the London Jews Society in Palestine up to 1914.....	147
Michael Marten
The theology and practice of Scottish medical missions: the study of missions in Palestine through a postcolonial lens.....	155
Jakob Eisler
German Mission-Propaganda-Movies in Palestine: how to do missionary fundraising and motivate donors.....	179
Christine Pschichholz
Considerations of the correlations between social welfare, missionary activities and foreign policy: German Protestant communities in Istanbul and Izmir and the diaspora care.....	191
Gerhard Gronauer
Attitudes in West German Protestantism towards the state of Israel 1948–1967.....	205
Uwe Kaminsky
The reconstruction of German Protestant institutions after the Second World War – the “Palaestinawerk”.....	231
Index.....	245
List of authors.....	249