

Table of Contents

Markus A. Denzel, Leipzig / Bolzano
Preface.....7

Jan de Vries, Berkeley
Introduction: Case Studies in Smallness.....9

SMALL PLAYERS, PART I: CHARTERED COMPANIES AND SMALL COUNTRIES

Victor Enthoven, Amsterdam
Going Dutch. Interloping in the Dutch Atlantic World.....21

Martin Krieger, Kiel
Danish Trading in the Indian Ocean Region. Perspectives for Further Research.....49

Klas Rönnbäck, Gothenburg
Who Stood to Gain from Colonialism? A Case Study of Early Modern European Colonialism in the Caribbean.....61

Leos Müller, Stockholm
The Swedish East India Company – Strategies and
Functions of an Interloper.....83

Philipp Robinson Rössner, Leipzig
Interloping, Economic Underdevelopment and the State in Eighteenth-century Northern Europe:
How Scotland became a Tobacco Entrepôt after 1707.....103

Philipp Robinson Rössner, Leipzig
Small is Beautiful? Dutch Economic Prominence and Scottish
Economic Development in the “Long Seventeenth Century”,
1600–1750: Fisheries and the Foreign Trades.....131

SMALL PLAYERS, PART II: FIRMS AND INDIVIDUAL BUSINESSES

Claudia Schnurmann, Hamburg
A Scotsman in Hamburg: John Parish and his Commercial Contribution to the American War of Independence, 1776–1783.....	157
Cristian Luca, Galați
The Dynamics of Commercial Activity in the Ottoman Port of Durazzo during the Consulate of Zorzi (Giorgio) Cumano (1699–1702).....	177
Andrea Bonoldi, Trento
Small Business? Jewish Merchants in Transalpine Trade: A Case Study.....	201
Marie-Claude Schöpfer Pfaffen / Gabriel Imboden, Brig
The Fratelli Loscho in Brig. Alpine Entrepreneurship in Small Markets during the Napoleonic Era.....	219

PART III: ALTERNATIVE ROUTES AND STREAMS OF COMMERCE

Ian Blanchard, Edinburgh
The ‘Great Silk Road’, ca. 1650/70–ca. 1855.....	253
List of Contributors.....	277