

CONTENTS

Introduction.....	9
-------------------	---

Demeter

Alberto Bernabé

“A brave netherworld: the Orphic Hades as utopia”.....	11
1. Aim: 11; 2. Startpoint: a life that is not a life: 12; 3. the death/life paradox and the construction of a utopia: 13; 4. Individual sphere: 15; 4.1. Insufficiencies of human being in the individual sphere: 15; 4.2. Orphic image of the life in Netherworld in the individual sphere: 15; 5. Social sphere: 17; 5.1. Insufficiencies of human being in social sphere: 17; 5.2. Orphic image of the life in Netherworld in the social sphere: the thiasos: 17; 5.3. Loss of a personal identity as a necessary condition: 18; 5.4. ποιινή and ἀμοιβή. Metempsychosis as retribution: 18; 5.5. Purity and justice: 20; 5.6. Characteristics of elite’s thiasos: 21; Conclusions: 19; Bibliography: 22

Jan N. Bremmer

“Demeter in Megara”	25
1. The temples of Demeter: 25; 2. The Thesmophoria: 28; 3. Demeter Malophoros: 34; Conclusion: 35; Bibliography: 35

Louise Bruit Zaidman

“Koré-Perséphone entre Déméter et Hadès”	39
1. La double figure divine de Koré-Perséphone: 37; 2. Le culte des deux déesses: 44; 3. Loin d’Eleusis: 48; 4. En guise de conclusion: 55; Bibliographie: 56

Concetta Giuffré Scibona

“Demeter and Athena at Gela: personal features of Sicilian goddesses”.....	59
1. Introduction: 59; 2. The case of Gela: 63; 3. Thesmophoria: 74; 4. The sanctuary of Bitalemi and other Demeter shrines in the chora : 79; Bibliography: 85

Isis

Laurent Bricault

“Associations isiaques d’Occident”	91
1. Apulée, Lucius et les pastophores: 91; 2. Sylla, Délos et les isiaques de Rome: 93; 3. Pausarii: 97; 4. Des structures collégiales peu originales:

98; 5. Des associations pour tous les milieux sociaux: 99; 6. Les collèges isiaques: associations religieuses ou associations réunies autour de l'autel d'Isis (ou de Sarapis)?: 101; Bibliographie: 102

Attilio Mastrocinque

“Neotera and her Iconography”105

1. The goddess Neotera: 105; 2. Cleopatra theà neotera: 109; 3. The name of Neotera: 111; 4. The divine wedding: 112; 5. Cleopatra the younger: 112; 6. Did Cleopatra theà neotera influence Isis' iconography?: 114; Bibliography: 116

Carla Sfameni

“Isis, Cybele and other oriental gods in Rome in Late Antiquity: “private” contexts and the role of senatorial aristocracy”119

Introduction: 119; 2. The S. Martino ai Monti context: Isis and Mithra in a late antique domus: 121; 3. Isis and other deities in the domus of the Aradii: a private cult between the Severian age and the IV century: 123; 4. The “Syrian sanctuary” on the Janiculum: a fourth century domus?: 125; 5. Other evidence of oriental cults in the domus of late antique Rome: 128; 6. “Private” aspects of the cult of Magna Mater in late antiquity: the basilica Hilariana and the role of the Symmachi; the dedications of the Vatican Phrygianum: 129; 7. Conclusions: 132; Bibliography: 135

Gaëlle Tallet

“Isis, the crocodiles and the mysteries of the Nile floods: interpreting a scene from Roman Egypt exhibited in the Egyptian Museum in Cairo (JE 30001)”139

1. The offering to the enthroned deity: 142; 1.1. A crocodile in the lap?: 143; 1.2. With or without beard: 144; 1.3. Falcon and crocodile: 146; 1.4. The Osirian regeneration: 149; 2. “I am the one who rises in the dog star” (Kyme aretology, 9; 1st century BC): 151; 3. Gods in arms: 155; Bibliography: 159

Vesta

Silvia Baschirotto

“Vesta and the Vestals, protectors of Rome”165

1. The punishment of the Vestal: 165; 2. Rites of foundation: 168; 3. Foundation deposits with human victims: 169; 4. Archaeological evidence: 170; 5. Foundation sacrifices relating to gateways or walls: 172; 6. Parallels with Asia and Africa: 173; 7. The burial of a young woman in the Balkan and African world: 175; 8. The sacrifice of a young woman at the moment of city foundation: 176; 9. The Vestals and the founding of Rome: 178; Bibliography: 179

Jörg Rüpke

“Flamines, Salii, and the priestesses of Vesta: Individual decision and differences of social order in late republican Roman priesthoods”183
 1. Introduction: 183; 2. Reinterpretations of priest roles: 183; 3. Patrician priesthoods: 186; 4. A new position for the Vestal virgins: 190; 5. Conclusion: 193; Bibliography: 193

Cybele

Richard Gordon

““Ut tu me vindices”: Mater Magna and Attis in some new Latin Curse-Texts”195
 1. The texts: 197; 1.1. Salacia/Setúbal (Portugal): 197; 1.2. Moguntiacum/Mainz: 198; 1.3. Groß-Gerau: 202; 2. Cultic knowledge as suasive resource: 203; Bibliography: 208

Charles Guittard

“The name of Cybele in Latin poetry and literature: Cybela, Cybebe or Cybele / Cybelle?”213
 1. Introduction: 213; 2. The official name: Mater Magna Ideae deum: 213; 3. The name of Cybele and the Phrygian Mountains: Ida, Berecynthus, Dyndimus, Cybelus: 214; 4. Cybela, Cybebe, Cybelle or Cybebe?: 216; 5. Catullus and the galliambics: 217; Bibliography: 219

Francisco Marco Simón

“On bulls and stars: sacrifice and allegoric pluralism in Julian’s times”221
 1. The Tarraconensis reliefs: 221; 2. Julian’s bull coinage revisited: 224; 3. The two stars: 226; 4. Julian, a model of the ‘taurobolic’ priest as described by Prudentius?: 228; 5. Conclusion: 231; Bibliography: 231

Robert Turcan

“Le circuit rituel de la lavatio”237
 Bibliographie: 246