CONTENTS

Jim Craine / Giorgio Hadi Curti
Prologue: Introducing the Fight to Stay Put: Social Lessons
Through Media Imaginings of Urban Transformation and Change 9

Giorgio Hadi Curti
"This Is My Town" – Exploring The Affective Life of Urban Transformation and Change via Taiyo Matsumoto's and Michael Arias' Tekkonkinkreet 19

Stuart C. Aitken
The Most Violent Vibrations Between Hope and Fear 57

Colin Gardner
Constructing a Cinema of Minorities: 'Staying Put,' Memories of Underdevelopment and The Invention of a People Yet to Come 75

Fernando J. Bosco
Disappearing, Struggling and Resisting in Buenos Aires:
Chronicle of an Escape 91

Pascale Joassart-Marcelli
Negotiating Social, Emotional, and Legal Boundaries:
Undocumented Immigrants and the Everyday Fight to Stay Put 109

Rachel Goffe / Todd Wolfson
Annihilation of Space by Media:
Making Connections Through a Fragmented Landscape 125

Amanda Huron
Claiming Space in the Air and on the Block:
The Geography of Microradio and Struggles Against Displacement 143

Ryan J. Goode / Kate Swanson / Stuart C. Aitken
From God to Men: Media and the Turbulent Fight for Rio's Favelas 161

Amy Siciliano / Paul S. B. Jackson
'More Westchester Than Watts':
Learning to Love the City Through Sesame Street 181

Steven M. Graves
Movin‘ on Up: Gentrified Landscapes on Television 195

Brenda Kayzar
Interpreting Philanthropic Interventions:
Media Representations of a Community Savior 209

Michaela Benson / Ed Jackiewicz
Questioning ‘The Right to Stay Put’ as an Explanation of the Impact of Lifestyle Migration and Residential Tourism Development 229

Jason Dittmer
Race, Displacement, and the American Comics Industry’s
‘Relevance’ Movement 241

Jim Craine / Giorgio Hadi Curti / Stuart C. Aitken
Cosmopolitan Sex, Monstrous Violence and Networks of Blood 249

Contributors 267