

CONTENTS

Introduction	Sovereignty, Territoriality and Universalism in the Aftermath of Caracalla ..... Clifford Ando (Chicago):	7
Chapter 1	Reading the Citizenship Papyrus (P.Giss. 40)..... Ari Z. Bryen (West Virginia)	29
Chapter 2	Local Law in Asia Minor after the Constitutio Antoniniana ..... Georgy Kantor (Oxford)	45
Chapter 3	The Notion of Res Publica in the Age of Caracalla ..... Claudia Moatti (Paris)	63
Chapter 4	Christian Reflections on Roman Citizenship (200–430)..... Hervé Inglebert (Paris)	99
Chapter 5	Citizenship, Subjection, and Civil Law: Jean Bodin on Roman Citizenship and the Theory of Consensual Subjection ..... Daniel Lee (Berkeley)	113
Chapter 6	Racialization within Universalist Societies. Is it Possible to Identify Various Historical Cases of the Same Antinomy? ..... Jean-Frédéric Schaub (Paris)	135
Chapter 7	Ancien Régime in the Tropics? A Debate Concerning the Political Model of the Portuguese Colonial Empire..... António Manuel Hespanha (Lisbon)	157
Chapter 8	Expanding Citizenship? The French Experience Surrounding the Code Napoléon ..... Luigi Lacchè (Macerata)	177
Chapter 9	Universalism, Legal Pluralism and Citizenship: Portuguese Imperial Policies on Citizenship and Law (1820–1914)..... Ana Cristina Nogueira da Silva (Lisbon)	199

Chapter 10	Tainted Citizenship and Imperial Constitutions: the Case of the Spanish Constitution of 1812 .....	221
	Josep M. Fradera (Barcelona)
Afterword	Roman Citizenship, Empire, and the Challenges of Sovereignty .....	243
	Anthony Pagden (Los Angeles)
Acknowledgments .....		257
Index .....		259