Table of Contents

Introduction
Approaching Roman Public Slavery 15
1. Public Slaves in Modern Scholarship 15
2. Reassessing Public Slavery 17

1. Being a Public Slave
Framing the Issue 19
1.1 What Was a Public Slave? 19
1.2 Public Slaves in Rome: Slaves of the Roman People 20
1.3 Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Cities: Slaves of the Townsfolk 22
1.4 Approaching a Definition: Slaves of the People 26
1.5 Becoming a Slave of the Roman People: The Supply of Public Slaves in Rome 26
1.6 Becoming a Slave of the Townsfolk: The Supply of Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Cities 29
1.7 The Three Specifics of Public Slaves 31
1.8 Belonging to an Administrative District: Slaves and Freedmen of Provinces .. 33
1.9 Public Slaves and Slaves of the Guilds: Two Sides of the Same Coin? 35
1.10 Martiales and Venerii: Slaves of the Gods, Not of the People 40

2. Public Slaves Across Time
A History of Roman Public Slavery 44
2.1 Public Slaves in Rome between the Late 6th and 4th Centuries BCE? 44
2.2 Towards a Consolidation of the Institution: Public Slaves in Rome under the Middle Republic 47
2.3 At the Service of the Political Power: Public Slaves in Rome in the Late Republic 51
2.4 Back to the Republican Origins: Public Slaves in Rome under Augustus 54
2.5 A Relic of the Republic in the Imperial World: Public Slaves in Rome during the Empire 57
2.6 A Historical Overview of Public Slavery in the Italian and Provincial Cities .. 59

3. Serving the State
Public Slaves and Freedmen in the City of Rome 63
Introduction 63
3.1 At the Service of the Offices 64
3.1.1 Serving the Traditional Republican Magistrates 65
3.1.1.1 Public Slaves Attached to Consuls 65
3.1.1.2 Public Slaves Attached to Praetors 67
3.1.1.3 Public Slaves Attached to Aediles 69
3.1.1.4 Public Slaves Attached to Tribunes of the Plebs 70
3.1.1.5 Public Slaves Attached to Quaestors 74
3.1.1.6 Public Slaves Attached to Censors 74
3.1.2 At the Service of the Augustan Offices 76
3.1.2.1 Public Slaves in Firefighting Service 77
3.1.2.2 Public Slaves Assisting the curatores (or praefecti) frumenti dandi and the curatores aquarum 78
3.1.2.3 Public Slaves and the Praefects of the Military Treasury 80
3.1.2.4 Public Slaves and the curatores operum publicorum 81
3.1.3 At the Service of the Imperial Offices 82
3.1.3.1 Public Slaves and the praefecti reliquorum exigendorum populi Romani 82
3.1.4 At the Service of Political Debate 83
3.1.4.1 Public Slaves in the Senate 83
3.2 At the Service of Religion 84
3.2.1 Serving the Priestly Colleges 84
3.2.1.1 Public Slaves and Pontiffs 84
3.2.1.2 Public Slaves and Augurs 89
3.2.1.3 Public Slaves and the quindecimviri sacris faciundis 91
3.2.1.4 Public Slaves and the septemviri epulonum 93
3.2.2 Serving Other Priestly Colleges 95
3.2.2.1 Public Slaves and the curiones 95
3.2.2.2 Public Slaves and the fetiales 96
3.2.2.3 Public Slaves and the sodales Titii 96
3.2.3 Serving the Goddess Dia: Public Slaves and the Arval Brethren 97
3.2.4 Serving the Deified Emperors: Public Slaves and the Priests of the Imperial Cult 106
3.2.5 Public Slaves and the Cult: The Uncertain Cases 110
3.2.6 In Charge of the Temples: Public Slaves as aeditui or a sacrario 112
3.3 At the Service of the Infrastructures of Rome 117
3.3.1 Public Slaves in Archives and Basilicas 117
3.3.2 Public Slaves in the Library in the Porticus Octaviae 118
3.3.3 The familia publica aquaria 120

4. Serving the Cities
Public Slaves, Freedmen and Freedwomen in Italy and the Western Provinces 124
Introduction 124
4.1 The Assignment of Tasks to Public Slaves, Freedmen, and Freedwomen 124
4.1.1 "What Type of Business Each Public Slave Should be Assigned To" 125
4.1.2 Work and Service for the City After Manumission 126
4.2 Public Slaves and Local Magistrates 127
4.2.1 The limocincti 127
4.2.1.1 At the Service of the Highest Magistrates 127
4.2.1.2 What Was the limus/-m of the limocincti? 130
4.2.1.3 Images of limocincti 135
4.2.2 The officiales 135
4.2.3 Public Slaves as an Honour Worthy of a Magistrate 138
4.3 Public Slaves and Freedmen in Religious Activities 142
4.3.1 Public Slaves and Freedmen as Assistants of Priests 142
4.3.2 Public Slaves and Freedmen as aeditui 144
4.3.3 Public Slaves and the Magna Mater 148
4.3.4 Public Freedmen and the Imperial Cult 151
4.4 Public Slaves and Freedmen in the Civic Administration 153
4.4.1 The Management of Public Records 153
4.4.1.1 Public Archives in the Roman Cities 154
4.4.1.2 Public Slaves and Freedmen as tabularii 155
4.4.1.3 Producing and Protecting Public Records 159
4.4.2 The Management of the Public Finance 159
4.4.2.1 Public Slaves and Freedmen as arcarii 160
4.4.2.2 Public Slaves Attached as arcarii to Specific Cash Departments ... 163
4.4.2.3 Public Slaves and Freedmen as dispensatores 165
4.4.2.4 Public Slaves and Freedmen as actores 166
4.4.2.5 Public Slaves and Freedmen as vilici aerarii or summarum or nude dicti 170
4.4.2.6 Managing Public Money 172
4.5 Public Slaves and Freedmen and Civic Infrastructure 173
4.5.1 Granaries 173
4.5.2 Markets 176
4.5.3 Weights and Measures 178
4.5.4 Baths 179
4.5.5 Public Slaves in the Amphitheatres? 182
4.5.6 Urban Embellishment and Street Furniture 186
4.6 Public Slaves and Freedmen and Public Land 187
4.6.1 Public Slaves as saltuarii 187
4.6.1.1 The Available Evidence 187

4.6.1.2 What Was a saltus? 189
4.6.1.3 The Working Environment 191
4.6.2 Public Slaves as mensores 194
4.7 Public Slaves and Freedmen as Specialized Labourers 195
4.7.1 Public Slaves as plumbarii 195
4.7.1.1 The Available Evidence 195
4.7.1.2 The Manufacture of Water Lead Pipes 201
4.7.2 Public Slaves as tegularii 204
4.8 Public Slaves and Freedmen and Public Order 207
4.8.1 Public Slaves as Prison Guards 207
4.8.2 Public Slaves Involved in Public Policing and Security 210

5. Being Freed by the Community
The Manumission of Public Slaves 213
5.1 Public Freedmen in Rome 213
5.1.1 The Official Procedure for Manumitting Public Slaves in Rome 213
5.1.2 The Nomenclature of Public Freedmen in Rome 214
5.1.3 The Number of Public Freedmen in Rome 216
5.1.4 Serving the State After the Manumission: The operae 218
5.1.5 Legal Status of Public Freedmen in Rome 218
5.2 Freed Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Communities 219
5.2.1 The Official Procedure for Manumitting Public Slaves in Italy and the Provinces 219
5.2.2 The Nomenclature of Freed Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Communities 221
5.2.3 The Number of Freed Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Communities 222
5.2.4 Serving the Community After the Manumission: The operae 225
5.2.5 Legal Status of Freed Public Slaves in Italian and Provincial Communities 226
5.2.5.1 Freed Public Slaves at Irni: Latin Citizens, Not Junian Latins 226
5.2.5.2 Freed Public Slaves in Italian Communities: Roman Citizens 229
5.2.6 Paying Honour to the City: Freed Public Slaves and the obsequium 231
5.2.7 The Price of Freedom: Freed Public Slaves Paying for Manumission 236
*5.2.8 A Very Disrespectful Public Slave: The "sceleratissimus servus publicus" from Tuder* 237

6. "The Lowly Hands of Public Slaves"?
Public Slaves in the Society 241
6.1 State of the Art 241
6.2 Providing for Public Slaves: Lodging, Board and Clothing at Public Expense 242
6.3 Managing and Bequeathing Property: Public Slaves and their peculium 244
6.4 Having A Family: Public Slaves, their Partners and their Children 247
6.5 Ranking Public Slaves: The Hierarchy within the Group of the servi publici ... 250
6.6 Hoping for Manumission: Public Slaves and the Chances of Being Freed ... 253
6.7 Life After Freedom: Freed Public Slaves and their Social Position 254
6.8 Opinions about Public Slaves: Voices from the Sources 256

Conclusions
Roman Public Slaves: Distinctive, not Necessarily Advantaged 258

Appendices 267
Appendix 1 Public Slaves in Rome 269
Appendix 2 Public Slaves, Freedmen and Freedwomen in Italian Towns 314
Appendix 3 Public Slaves, Freedmen and Freedwomen in the Western Provinces 383
Appendix 4 Incerti 410
Appendix 5 Slaves and Freedmen of the Provinces 432
Appendix 6 Slaves and Freedmen of Associations and Guilds 435

List of Abbreviations 438

Bibliography 441

Index Locorum 468
Literary Sources 468
Inscriptions 472

General Index 481