

INDEX

Preface .....	7
Rainer Liedtke, Takahito Mori, Katja Schmidtpott Introduction.....	9
PART I: MUTUAL HISTORIOGRAPHICAL PERCEPTIONS
Katja Schmidtpott German Research on the Japanese City in the Interwar Period.....	23
Satoshi Baba The Impact of Western Ideas on the Birth of Town and Regional Planning in Japan: An Overview of Japanese Research .....	45
PART II: MAKING OF THE 20 TH CENTURY CITY IN JAPAN
Beate Löffler From Teaching ‘Progress’ to Learning ‘Tradition’? Tokyo’s Built Environment as a Mirror of Ideas of Modernity in German- language Discourses of Architecture (1900–1940) .....	71
Yūdai Deguchi Modification of the Garden City Concept in Japan: A Case Study on the Mukonosō Residential Area.....	105
Julia Mariko Jacoby Fireproofing the Japanese City against Disasters and Aerial Bombing, 1923–1945 .....	123
Shūichi Takashima The German Influence on the First Subway in Tokyo.....	153
Takahito Mori From Hamburg to Osaka? Organising Leisure through Kraft durch Freude and Kōsei Undō .....	175

PART III: OBSERVATIONS FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF EUROPEAN URBAN HISTORY

Dieter Schott

Japanese Urbanisation in the Light of Urban Environmental History .....207

Christoph Bernhardt

Observations on Urban Planning in Japan and Europe in a Transcultural
Perspective: Pathways and Entanglements, 1870–1940 .....227

Ralf Roth

The Role of Infrastructure for Japanese and European Urbanisation .....239

Rainer Liedtke

Social Dimensions of European and Japanese Urbanisation .....253

APPENDIX

Tables and Figures .....265

References .....271

Archival sources .....301

Contributors .....303