

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Daniel Gehrt, Markus Matthias and Sascha Salatowsky Introduction.....	9
1. EMERGING NARRATIVES
Kenneth G. Appold Reformation History in the Eyes of Early-Modern Catholics	19
Martin Rothkegel History Written by the Victims: Reformation as Reflected in Sixteenth-Century Hutterite Chronicles.....	29
2. CULTIVATING PROTESTANT PERSPECTIVES
Daniel Bohnert Reformationsgeschichtsschreibung im Umfeld der Wittenberger Universitätstheologie des frühen 17. Jahrhunderts.....	75
Bruce Gordon History and Reformation in Swiss Reformed Bibles.....	95
Aza Goudriaan The Reformation and Early “Historical Theology”: Heinrich Altung and John Forbes of Corse	113
Markus Matthias Agitur de animae salute: Geschichtliches Denken in Veit Ludwig von Seckendorffs Historia Lutheranismi	127
Steffie Schmidt Luther and the Goths: Reformation in the Swedish Historiography of the Seventeenth Century.....	153

3. HISTORIOGRAPHIC CONTENTIONS

Andreea Badea

Lutheranism as Heresy:

Louis Maimbourg's Gallican View of Church History 179

Sascha Salatowsky

Looking Back into the Past:

New Understanding of Church History in the Early Modern Period 193

Pablo Toribio

The Reformation in Antitrinitarian Accounts of Church History 229

4. CHANGING APPROACHES

Daniel Gehrt

Arguing for the Moral Necessity of Reformation History:

Ernst Salomon Cyprian's Historiographic Use of Natural Law

in Defense of the Lutheran Church 243

Wolf-Friedrich Schäufele

Between Continuity and Discontinuity:

The Narrative of Witnesses of the Evangelical Truth and the Reformation as an Era in Writings by Jacques Basnage and

Christoph Matthäus Pfaff 271

Markus Friedrich

The Church Historian's Desk:

Barthold Nicolaus Krohn and His Working Papers 281

Index of Authors 307

Index of Abbreviations 309

Index of Persons 311