

Contents

---

Acknowledgements .....	9
1 Introductory remarks .....	11
1.1 Background and aims of this work .....	11
1.2 Concepts and methods .....	14
2 Historical context and literature review .....	18
2.1 Denmark's transition to Christianity .....	18
2.2 Saints and sanctities .....	40
2.3 Danish sources on Danish history .....	50
3 Sources on St Cnut .....	55
3.1 The life of the Danish king Cnut and extant sources .....	55
3.2 The Odense literature .....	59
3.3 The 'Gesta et Passio' .....	62
3.4 Tradition of motifs from the Odense literature .....	75
3.5 Liturgical texts .....	76
3.6 Later sources .....	78
3.7 The vernacular 'Knytlinga saga' .....	81
4 The development of the cult of St Cnut .....	83
5 The 'Gesta et Passio': Basic structures, narrative strategies and rhetoric .....	88
5.1 Ælnoth's sources and resources .....	88
5.2 Basic structures .....	91
5.3 Narrative strategies .....	94
5.4 Rhetoric and style .....	106
6 The making of Cnut as a royal saint .....	115
6.1 Constructing a royal saint .....	115
6.2 Showing elements of imitatio Christi .....	116

6.3	Comparing Cnut to other saints .....	128
6.4	Mentioning miracles .....	130
6.5	Portraying Cnut as a Christian king .....	137
6.6	Concluding remarks on the construction of Cnut as royal saint .....	153
7	Propagating the cult of St Cnut and showing its beginnings .....	155
7.1	Narrating the canonisation of Cnut .....	155
7.2	Showing the beginnings of the cult of Cnut .....	160
8	Propagating an ideology of kingship: The ‘Gesta et Passio’ as a mirror of princes? .....	164
8.1	Ideals of kingship and mirrors of princes .....	164
8.2	Advising, admonishing and wishing a prosperous future .....	166
8.3	Praising exemplary kings .....	168
8.4	Condemning bad kings .....	171
8.5	Concluding remarks .....	174
9	Enhancing the legitimacy and prestige of the ruling dynasty .....	176
9.1	The background to Ælnoth’s work .....	176
9.2	Consolidating the dynasty internally .....	177
9.3	Praising Cnut’s international renown .....	187
9.4	Introducing Cnut as a holy ancestor in Flanders .....	191
9.5	Concluding remarks .....	193
10	Furthering ecclesiastical interests .....	195
10.1	The state of the Danish church c. 1100 .....	195
10.2	Advocating the strengthening of the Danish church .....	197
10.3	Defining the relationship between church and rulers .....	200
10.4	Tracing the evolution of the Danish church .....	202
10.5	Concluding remarks .....	203
11	Providing Edification .....	204
11.1	Aspects of edification .....	204
11.2	Presenting the story of Cnut’s martyrdom and sanctification .....	205
11.3	Showing good and bad examples .....	206
11.4	Inserting edifying segments in the narrative .....	208
11.5	The aura of biblical language .....	210
11.6	Concluding remarks .....	210
12	Providing entertainment .....	211
13	Conclusion .....	215

Abbreviations .....	221
List of Figures .....	222
Bibliography .....	223